To the Board of Directors
DH Frederick Securities, Inc.

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of DH Frederick Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2007, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statement taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the statement of financial condition, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statement and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statement taken as a whole.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

As of December 31, 2007

NOTE 1 – GENERAL

DH Frederick Securities, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated in the state of California on June 2, 2003 and commenced operations on October 6, 2003. The Company is wholly owned by Frederick Capital Corporation ("FCC").

The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") as a broker/dealer in securities and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers (the "NASD"). The Company is exempt from the provisions of rule 15c3-3 (pursuant to paragraph (k)(2)(i) of such rule) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as the Company is an introducing broker/dealer which promptly transmits all funds and delivers all securities received in connection with its activities as a broker/dealer, and does not hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers. Because of such exemptions, the Company is not required to prepare a determination of reserve requirements and possession or control requirements of rule 15c3-3.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Risks, Uncertainties and Concentrations

Net Capital Requirements

The Company must maintain, at all times, minimum net capital of $5,000 or 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, whichever is greater, and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of less than 15 to 1, as defined under Commission Rule 15c3-1, "Net Capital Requirements for Brokers or Dealers." As of December 31, 2007, the Company had net capital of $19,379, which was $14,379 in excess of the required minimum net capital and had a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of 0.06 to 1 as of December 31, 2007.

Registration

The Company must register with state departments which govern compliance with securities laws in which it does business. The Company generates a substantial amount of income in the state of California. Various regulatory requirements exist in each state with which the Company must comply. Should the Company violate certain state securities laws, it could be prohibited from doing business in that state.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

As of December 31, 2007

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued

Cash

At times, the Company may maintain cash balances in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limits per customer per financial institution.

Use of Estimates

In the normal course of preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a qualified subchapter S corporation under the Internal Revenue Code and under the tax laws of the state of California, pursuant to which taxes on income of the Company are the responsibility of the stockholder. Under this election, the Company's taxable income or loss flows through to the stockholder's federal and state income tax returns. The state of California imposes an $800 minimum tax per year, and a tax equal to 1.5 percent of taxable income, which may be offset by available tax credits and/or loss carryforwards.

Liquidity and Risks

The Company has a limited operating history and relies on a small group of customers for all of its operating cash flow.

The Company's ability to continue in existence is dependent on, among other factors, the Company's ability to continue to generate adequate cash flows from operations and from debt and equity financing to fund its operations. The Company has addressed the factors mentioned above by focusing on its business plan to increase its customer base. Management believes that this plan is sufficient to allow the Company to adequately fund its operations through at least February 28, 2009. In the event that additional funds are required, FCC has committed to provide such funding.

NOTE 3 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Related Party Transactions

For the year ended December 31, 2007, the Company paid FCC consulting expenses totaling $130,000. The Company was obligated to pay $3,000 monthly in 2007 in the form of management fees to FCC for general and administrative service support (including facilities) provided to the Company. Management fee expense was $36,000 for the year ended December 31, 2007, which was recorded as a contribution from FCC, by mutual agreement of the parties.

Indemnities and Guarantees

During the normal course of business, the Company has made certain indemnities and guarantees under which it may be required to make payments in relation to certain transactions. These indemnities include certain agreements with the Company's officers, under which the Company may be required to indemnify such person for liabilities arising out of their employment relationship. The duration of these indemnities and guarantees varies and, in certain cases, is indefinite. The majority of these indemnities and guarantees do not provide for any limitation of the maximum potential future payments the Company could be obligated to make. Historically, the Company has not been obligated to make any payments for these obligations and no liabilities have been recorded for these indemnities and guarantees in the accompanying financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

Board of Directors
DH Frederick Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the statement of financial condition of DH Frederick Securities, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2007, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting ("internal control") as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2007, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
