Hand Securities, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2020

Note A: Organization and Nature of Business

Hand Securities, Inc. ("the Company"), acts as an agent in connection with the purchase and sale of equity and debt securities and with the purchase and sale of shares in mutual funds with customer accounts cleared on a fully-disclosed basis. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hand Benefits & Trust Company (the Parent), which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Benefit Plans Administrative Services, Inc. ("BPAS"), which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Community Bank System, Inc. ("CBSI").

The Company operates pursuant to the (k)(2)(ii) exemptive provision of the Securities and Exchange Commission's ("SEC") Rule 15c3-3 and the "non-covered firm" provision under Footnote 74 of SEC Release No. 34-70073, and does not hold customer funds or securities, but, as an introducing broker-dealer, clears all transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis through a clearing broker. Mutual fund activity is cleared utilizing Fund/SERV, an automated service of National Securities Clearing Corporation that acts as a conduit to mutual fund companies. The Company is registered as a securities dealer with the SEC and various states and is registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

Note B: Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all liquid financial instruments with original maturities of less than 90 days and not pledged or otherwise restricted, as cash and cash equivalents. The carrying amounts approximate fair values because of the short maturity of cash equivalents. At December 31, 2020, the Company's cash accounts exceeded federally insured limits by approximately $1,357,000. Approximately 68% of cash and cash equivalents were held at one institution at December 31, 2020.

Commission Revenue

The Company has agreements with individual investment fund families. These funds are typically mutual funds and the agreement establishes the relationship for the Company to collect 12(b)1 fees. The Company's performance obligation that relates to these services is satisfied over time and the resulting fees are recognized monthly, based upon the market value of the assets under management and the applicable fee rate. These fees are typically 25 – 35 basis points per year of fund assets and are paid monthly or quarterly. The fees that the Company earns are for various administrative functions that are described in the prospectus for potential customers. Distribution fees recognized in the current period are primarily related to performance obligations included in contracts signed in prior periods. The Company does not earn performance-based incentives.

The Company is deemed to have variable consideration, and thus be constrained, due to the commission revenue containing a factor not known at the time the contract is signed, which in the Company's case is the market value of the fund assets. The constraint of commission revenue is resolved by the passage of time and the determination of fund asset values. Revenue is recorded at each month end when fund values have been materially determined each month and significant revenue reversals are not anticipated.

Contract Balances

A contract asset balance occurs when an entity performs a service for a customer before the customer pays consideration (resulting in a contract receivable) or before payment is due (resulting in a contract asset). A contract liability balance is an entity's obligation to transfer a service to a customer for which the entity has already received payment (or payment is due) from the customer. The Company's revenue stream is based on standard month-end revenue accruals for fees based on fund market values. Consideration is often received immediately or shortly after the Company satisfies its performance obligation and revenue is recognized, and therefore, does not experience significant contract balances. There was approximately $176,000 and $143,000 of commissions and fees receivable and approximately $8,000 and $39,000 considered unbilled fee revenue as of December 31, 2020 and January 1, 2020, respectively. There was no unearned revenue recorded in the Statement of Financial Condition at either December 31, 2020 or January 1, 2020.

Commissions and fees receivable are stated at the amount billed to customers, net of any credit losses. When deemed appropriate the Company provides an allowance for credit losses, which is based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information and existing economic conditions. Commissions and fees receivable are ordinarily due 30 days after the issuance of the invoice. Delinquent receivables are written off based on individual credit evaluation and specific circumstances of the customer. There was no allowance for credit losses at December 31, 2020.

Income Taxes

The Company is included in the consolidated federal and state income tax returns filed by CBSI. Income taxes are calculated on a stand-alone return basis, with the Company's share of the tax provision either remitted to or received from the Parent. Income tax expense is based on taxes currently payable or refundable as well as deferred taxes that are based on temporary differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded at currently enacted income tax rates applicable to the period in which the deferred tax assets and liabilities are expected to be realized or settled. At December 31, 2020, the Company owed $8,871 to CBSI for the Company's pro rata share of income taxes and did not have any deferred tax assets or liabilities.

Included in income taxes is $7,105, before federal benefit, of Texas Margin Tax, which is calculated as a percent of gross revenue. Under Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Section 740 Income Taxes, this is considered a tax based on income, and accordingly is classified as income tax expense.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions, such as income taxes and the collectability of receivables, that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

Companies are required to evaluate events and transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before the date the financial statements are issued, or available to be issued in the case of non-public entities. They must recognize in the financial statements the effect of all events or transactions that provide additional evidence of conditions that existed at the balance sheet date, including the estimates inherent in the financial preparation process. Entities shall not recognize the impact of events or transactions that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the balance sheet date but arose after that date. The Company has evaluated events and transactions through February 24, 2021, the date the financial statements were issued, and noted no subsequent events requiring financial statement recognition or disclosure.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326). This new guidance changes how entities will measure credit losses for most financial assets and certain other instruments that are not measured at fair value through net income. This ASU replaced the incurred loss methodology with a current expected credit loss (“CECL”) methodology for instruments measured at amortized cost including receivables that result from revenue transactions.

The Company adopted ASC 326 on January 1, 2020 using a modified retrospective approach for all financial assets measured at amortized cost and off-balance-sheet credit exposures. The adoption of ASU No. 2016-13 did not result in a material allowance for credit losses on the Company’s commissions and fees receivable or unbilled commissions and fees.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU No. 2019-12, Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes (Topic 740). The updated guidance simplifies the accounting for income taxes by removing certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740, and clarifying and amending existing guidance to improve consistent application. This new guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted in any interim periods for which financial statements have not been issued. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this guidance will have on the Company’s financial statements.

In March 2020, the FASB issued ASU No. 2020-04, Facilitation of the Effects of Reference Rate Reform on Financial Reporting (Topic 848). The updated guidance provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to contracts, hedging relationships, and other transactions affected by reference rate reform if certain criteria are met. The amendments in this guidance apply only to contracts, hedging relationships, and other transactions that reference LIBOR or another reference rate expected to be discontinued because of reference rate reform. This new guidance is effective as of March 12, 2020 through December 31, 2022. Adoption is permitted in any interim periods for which financial statements have not been issued. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this guidance will have on the Company’s financial statements.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to beginning of year balances to conform to the current year presentation.

Note C: Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2020, the Company had net capital of $825,020, which was $775,020 in excess of its required net capital of $50,000. The Company’s ratio of aggregate indebtedness to regulatory net capital was 0.17 to 1.

Note D: Restricted Cash

The Company has an agreement with a clearing organization whereby the clearing organization performs clearing functions for all security transactions with brokers and dealers. The clearing organization requires that a balance of $25,000 be maintained by the Company. The balance bears interest at a rate determined by the clearing organization, is due on demand, and is included in cash and cash equivalents in the Statement of Financial Condition.

Note E: Contingent Liabilities

In the normal course of business, the Company's activities involve the execution, settlement, and financing of securities transactions through a clearing broker. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance sheet credit and market risk in the event the customer or counterparty is unable to fulfill its contractual obligations.

The clearing broker, through which accounts are introduced, and the Company seek to control the risks associated with customer activities by requiring customers to maintain margin collateral in compliance with various regulatory and internal guidelines and by monitoring for prompt customer payments in accordance with various regulatory guidelines. The Company is contingently liable for any customer account deficits with the clearing broker that are not otherwise satisfied. The clearing broker and the Company monitor required margin levels daily and, pursuant to such guidelines, require customers to deposit additional collateral or to reduce positions where necessary. The Company has not experienced any losses to date related to these risks, and no future losses are anticipated, therefore no contingent liabilities have been recorded as of the Statement of Financial Condition date.

Note F: Related-party Transactions

For the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company recorded management fee expenses of $1,173,890 for administrative and recordkeeping services provided by Benefit Plan Administrative Services, LLC, an affiliated company. At December 31, 2020, $104,295 of this amount was payable to the affiliate.

The Company maintains a checking account with Community Bank N.A., an affiliated company. At December 31, 2020, the balance in this account was $1,468,337.

Note G: Income Taxes

Income tax expense includes these components:

|                     | Federal         | State          | Total           |
|---------------------|-----------------|----------------|-----------------|
| Current expense     | $26,137        | $7,130        | $33,267        |
| Deferred benefit    | -               | -              | -               |
| Income taxes | $26,137 | $7,130 | $33,267 |

Federal current income tax expense as a percentage of income before income taxes differs from the statutory rate of 21% primarily due to the effects of state income taxes, which provide a federal income tax benefit.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Shareholder and Board of Directors
Hand Securities, Inc.
Houston, Texas

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Hand Securities, Inc. (the Company) identified the following provisions of 17 CFR §15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 CFR §240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(ii) and Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 CFR § 240.17a-5 (the exemption provisions) and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the conditions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 CFR § 240.17a-5.
