NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2023

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Nature of operations

Sovereign Legacy Securities, Inc. (the Company) is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of New York on March 31, 1954. The Company is a broker dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company is registered in a number of states where it maintains customer accounts.

The Company generates its revenues by placing securities transactions for individual investors. The Company is a non-carrying, non-clearing broker-dealer whose primary business is the sale of mutual funds and variable annuities.

Under its membership agreement with FINRA and pursuant to Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i), the Company is exempt from the requirement of Rule 15c3-3 under Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pertaining to the possession or control of customer assets and reserve requirement.

Accounting Method

The company uses the accrual basis of accounting for financial statement purposes. It is subject to regulation by the Securities and Exchange Commission and by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and it follows accounting and recording keeping policies established by those agencies.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred while renewals and betterments are capitalized.

Income taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of the transactions reported in the financial statements. Current income taxes are based upon the year's taxable income for Federal and State income tax reporting purposes. There has not been a recent examination by the Internal Revenue Service and the only open years subject to examination are generally the years ending after December 31, 2018. There is a net operating loss carryforward of $7,547 reported from the year ending 2018, accordingly, there is no current tax expense in 2023.

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. FASB ASC Topic 740-10 establishes that a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return is to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. The Company's returns from 2019 to 2023 are subject to review by the Internal Revenue Service.

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from these estimates.

Cash & Cash Equivalents

For purpose of relating to the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company has defined Cash and cash equivalents to include all monies in banks and highly liquid instruments with maturity dates of less than three months.

Concentrations of Credit Risk Arising from Cash Deposits

The company maintains amounts in bank deposits accounts that have not exceeded federally insured limits.

Revenue Recognition

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Topic 606, to supersede nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under GAAP.

The Company receives fees in accordance with terms stipulated in its engagement contracts. Fees are recognized as earned. The Company also receives success fees when transactions are completed. Success fees are recognized when earned, which means the Company has Retainer fees that are not subject to refund are recognized when received subject to the terms of engagement.

Revenue is measured based on a consideration specified in a contract with a customer, and excludes any sales incentives and amounts collected on behalf of third parties. The Company recognizes revenue when it has satisfied a performance obligation by transferring control over a product or service to a customer.

The Company adopted Topic 606 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" with a date of January 1, 2018. As a result, it has changed its accounting policy for revenue recognition as detailed below. The Company applied Topic 606 using the cumulative effect method - i.e., by recognizing the cumulative effect of initially applying Topic 606 as an adjustment to the opening balance of equity at January 1, 2018. This was immaterial. Therefore, any prior reporting information has not been adjusted and continues to be reported under Topic 606. On December 31, 2023, the Company maintains that no liabilities existed nor were there any circumstances whereby significant judgment was needed to determine the timing and measure of progress appropriate for revenue recognition.

Commission revenue and variable contracts is recognized on a trade date when the performance obligation is satisfied. The Company records commission revenue and related commission expense on a trade day basis. In management's opinion, substantially all revenue is earned at a point in time. Interest income is earned over time.
