Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member of
Palazzo Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Palazzo Securities, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2024, the related notes and schedules (collectively referred to as the "financial statement"). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit also included assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit of the financial statement provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2013.

Palazzo Securities, LLC
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2024

Note 1 – Organization

Nature of Business

Palazzo Securities, LLC (the "Company") is a New York limited liability company whose sole member is P A Palazzo LLC (the "Parent"), a New York limited liability company. The Company is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is engaged primarily in providing financial advisory services to business entities (and the buyers, investors and lenders to such entities) engaged in a variety of financial transactions.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements of the Company have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and the disclosure of contingencies in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from the estimates included in the financial statements.

Income Taxes

The Company is not subject to federal income taxes. All taxable income (loss) and tax credits are reported on the tax returns of the Parent company. At December 31, 2024, the Company has not recognized any contingencies in the financial statements related to uncertain tax positions.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent events were evaluated through February 12, 2025 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 3 – Concentration

The Company's cash balances are insured up to $250,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) which has resulted in instances in which balances have been in excess of such insurance coverage.

Note 4 – Related Party Transactions – Allocated Expenses

The Company and the Parent entered into administrative services agreements in a manner consistent with Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules 15c3-17a-3, 17a-4 and 17a-5 and other relevant SEC and FINRA regulations and interpretations, whereas the Parent agrees to pay certain of the administrative and other expenses relating to the operation of the Company and the Company will reimburse the Parent for such expenses. Under the current agreement, the Parent may forego payment from the Company and the Company may accept such debt forgiveness as additional capital contributions.
